Furniture and Carpets

Here's to the maid whose sweetheart found
The man whose text is all around,
"At Brouwer's your credit is good,"
Her lover repeated, and she understood
When he added, "We need no longer delay,"
She straightway named their wedding day.

And who saw the man of whom you've read
Saying with point—"Your credit's good
At Brouwer's"—and determined he would
Without delay, and with her consent,
Hasten their Wedding Day's advent.

CITY AND VICINITY.

Rev. Kosten of Boreulo has accepted a call to the church at Ellis Island, N. J.

Miss Martha De Jong of Zeeland has accepted a position as instructor in the Wisconsin Memorial Academy at Cedar Grove, Wis.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Central avenue Christian Reformed church held their annual picnic at Macatawa Park Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John Walter, a poultry fancier of Hopkins, who makes a specialty of Barred Rocks, last week sold 100 pullets for $85. Holland poultry fanciers can beat that all hollow.

A dispatch from Ludington says: "It is reported in marine circles that the Crosby Transportation company is putting up $10,000 a month for the season of four months as the charter price for the Northern steamer Illinois."

The barge Two Myrtles arrived here from Manistee Tuesday with a cargo of shingles and timber for the Scott Lagers Lumber Co. The D. A. Wells, south bound, also arrived Tuesday the first trip this boat has made here this season.

Henry Gildner, for a number of years proprietor of the Gildner hotel of Grand Haven, is again trying to secure the ownership and management of the house, now the leading hotel in that city. He is conferring with A. W. Stittger, the present manager.

Dr. S. O. Mast, of the Biological department of Hope college, is spending the summer at Woods Hall, Mass. He writes that the summer is pleasant there. He will stay there until August 20 when he will go to Boston to attend a meeting of the International Congress of Zoologists, at which he will read a paper. In September Dr. Mast will leave for Baltimore.

The fruitgrowers in the vicinity of Fennville are of the opinion that apples will bring good prices this fall. Already apple buyers are there, and this would seem to indicate that the crop is expected to be short and that good prices will be received. Several orchards have already been sold at prices from $1.25 to $2.50 per barrel. Many owners of orchards are holding for even better prices.

Rev. Haan conducted services in the First Christian Reformed church of Zeeland last Sunday.

The Ottawa county Sunday school rally will be held at Highland Park, in Grand Haven, August 8. A very large attendance is looked for.

Miss Elizabeth Schepers has received the appointment of assistant librarian at the Ryerson library in Grand Rapids. Miss Schepers is a graduate of the class of 1903 of the Holland High school.

The Stern brothers of Allegan are buying wool extensively this year, having already shipped about 150,000 pounds. They are buying the crop at different points, and nearly every day a load or two goes to Allegan for them.

Keep your name painted plain on your rural route mail box. It may be of no particular use to the carrier who knows anyway, but it may be worth while to you when a man happens along who does not know and wants to buy something you have to sell.

Lightning Sunday night ran into Register of Deed Ward's home over the electric light wires and followed a pipe to the cess pool igniting the sewer gas and causing it to explode, blowing a hole through the top of the cess pool.—Grand Haven Tribune.

The steamer Nyack of the Crosby Line will run an excursion from Grand Haven to Jenison Park Sunday, July 28, and at two o'clock she will make a trip out on Lake Michigan, returning at four o'clock. Music and refreshments will be provided on board. Rate for the lake trip 25 cents.

Joseph Warner of this city has a large landscape drawing of the Village of Douglas showing each building in the center of the village and many of those further out. The drawing has attracted considerable attention in Douglas, and well it might for Mr. Warner's work is strongly realistic.

There was a strike Saturday afternoon in the ranks of the men employed by the city to build a sewer on West Fifteenth street. A number of Hollanders claiming that they did not get their share in the American "square deal" refused to work and became so violent that it nearly came to blows. They were however soon appeased and went to work.

E. B. Standart has received a prize of $50, being third in a window display contest. The prize was offered by the Pritchard-Strong company of Rochester, N. Y. manufacturers of lanterns and hardware. The window represented "Uncle Obediah" holding a lighted lantern which an electric fan could not "blow out".

George Raterink of Zeeland hired a horse of C. Noorthuis, with the intention of driving to Boreulo. Instead he drove to Robinson. When the horse was returned to the livery barn, it bore marks, some 1½ feet long, of beating. Mr. Noorthuis had him arrested; he was brought before Justice Roozenraad and forced to settle the bill of $8.60.

Thus far there has been no indication given by any of the railroads affected by the recently enacted two cent passenger fare law of a purpose to question the validity of the new statute or not to comply therewith. The new law will not become operative until the last week in September, not having been given immediate effect. In the absence of any sign to the contrary it is expected that the companies intend to promptly comply with the two cent provision.

Dr. John Dice McLaren of Watkins, N. Y., has been elected by the executive committee of Hope college council to take Dr. Mast's place as Professor Biological, Science, during the latter's year of absence to do original research, the funds being furnished by the John Hopkins University. Dr. McLaren comes highly recommended. He is a graduate of the John Hopkins University and of the Columbia University of New York. Dr. Mast, who has held this chair of Biology at Hope for eight years, is one of the finest teachers of science in the country. He has secured the degree of Ph. D. from Harvard College. He is a painstaking observer and is admirably fitted to do the original research work in which he will engage for a few years.

The Prospect Park Christian Reformed church has extended a call to Rev. G. P. De Joue of East Paris.

The resorts entertained a celebrity this week, Joe Curtis, the U. of M. football star being the guest of some of his college friends who are resorting at the park.

M. Lockard has started a weekly paper in Grandville, this being the first publication for that place. It is a credible production and it is hoped that Mr. Lockard will meet with the success that a man of his enterprise deserves.

The five-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stykstra died last Sunday morning at their home on the north side of the bay. The funeral was held Monday from the home, Rev. A. Keizer officiating.

The Citizen's Band is going to give a series of concerts at Saugatuck during the month of August. There are many resorters there and but little entertainment. So the band is going to fill the bill in the entertainment line. The dates for the concerts have not yet been arranged.

Grand Haven has a justice of the peace in the person of D. C. Wachs who believes in promoting infant industries. He was at the steamboat dock there last Sunday passing out his business cards to those couples whose blushes indicated that they were matrimonially inclined.

John Kincaid, a building mover of Allegan was found early Monday morning in a shed at the rear of the Sherman house. The coroner's jury determined that he died from the excessive use of alcohol. When found Kincaid had a pint bottle of alcohol which was about empty and a full bottle of whisky. He was in an odd position, lying on his forehead and resting on his knees, with his arms limp at his sides.

His old friends and former schoolmates in this city hope that when Cornelius Gardener, Colonel of the 16th U. S. Cavalry at Post McKinley, Philippine Islands, reaches this country he will pay Holland a visit. Every citizen of the city is proud of the distinguished services he is rendering his country and holds him in high esteem. Col. Gardener will leave his present station and expects to arrive at the U. S. post in Omaha, Sept. 20.

Thinking he was securing a valuable horse, some thief broke into the stable of Peter Ver Hage Thursday night and led away a horse used on the delivery wagon of the Zeeland Milling Co. Deputy Sheriff Schaap found the horse Friday night near Vriesland, it having been turned loose by the thief. Entrance to the barn was secured through a small rear door secured by a wire fastening. This horse was valued at $150 and its owner had other more valuable animals, and the thief undoubtedly thought he was making a big haul.

The Modern Woodmen camp of Fennville invites all Woodmen of this city and vicinity to a big celebration to be held in Fennville, August 17. Kent Camp degree team of Grand Rapids, which has the reputation of being the best drilled team in the order, will give two fancy drills on Main street during the day and there will be two big ball games. Music will probably be furnished by the Grand Rapids Newsboys, band and a first class martial band and there will be all kinds of sports, with addresses by prominent speakers from a distance.

It is estimated by Superintendent De Young of the board of public works that it will cost the city only $331.11 to get its electric current this winter from the Grand Rapids Muskegon Power Company. The time will be here within three months when the current will be needed for the heavy fall and winter demands and the board is getting seriously busy about making arrangements. The expenses connected with the temporary arrangements would be $1,131.11. By this arrangement the sale of the $10,000 bonds could be delayed for eight months, yielding an interest of some eight hundred dollars. Deducting this from the net cost would make the actual cost $331.11. It is advisable according to Superintendent De Young, to make the deal as soon as possible, since that will give ample time to the manufacturers of machinery to deliver their goods.

The Young People's society of Central avenue Christian Reformed church will hold their annual picnic at Alpena Beach today.

Trade was dull for sneak thieves Saturday night. They gained entrance to the dental offices of Dr. G. A. Stegeman and Dr. J. O. Scott but so far as appearances indicate came away without any plunder.

The consistory of the Sixteenth street Christian Reformed church last Friday evening nominated the following trio: Rev. M. Van Veen, of Drenthe, Rev. J. W. Brink of Muskegon and Rev. Herman Tula of Passaic, N. J.

John Hoyt pleaded guilty in Justice VanDuren's court Monday to disorderly conduct and paid a fine and costs amounting to $5. He was arrested by Patrolman Meeuwse, having been indulging in a family quarrel.

The farm house of Burton Harrington east of Fennville was destroyed by fire Saturday evening, an overturned lamp starting the blaze. Part of the furniture was saved. The house was valued at $1,200, and was insured.

Mrs. Gerrit Laarman died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock of diabetes. She was 39 years of age and is survived by a husband and six children. The funeral was held Wednesday at 1:30 from the home on Land street, and at 2 o'clock from the Ninth street church, Rev. A. Keizer officiating.

The matron has been appointed for the Girls Dormitory. She is Miss Townsend of Arlington, N. Y., and comes highly recommended. Mrs. C. V. R. Gilmore was elected dean of the dormitory. The girls of the college will thus have next year as beautifully equipped home as any institution in the state, and they will enjoy the guidance of these highly efficient women.

Miss Nellie Churchford of the City Mission has received a diploma from the Schofield Bible Correspondence school of New York City, one of the largest Bible Institutes in the world. The diploma is for a two year course of study which Miss Churchford covered in seven months. The course covers all the sixty-six books of the Bible very thoroughly, and the diploma states that Miss Churchford has answered more than 90 per cent of the 2,517 questions in the course.

The government dredge General Gillespie known as the san I suckler, is charged with being to blame for the dead fish now floating about the water intake south of St. Joseph. It is said that any fish that got within several feet of the pipes of the dredge was sure to be drawn into them with the earth. If this be true of St. Joe it is also true of Holland harbor and thousands of fish were taken out of the harbor in this manner and deposited in the lake. Nevertheless fishing is pretty fair here this summer.

Dr. J. Ackerman Coles of New York City, whose name is well known here in connection with the Washington Best Contest held at Hope College this spring, has again "opened up his heart" as the college boy expresses it. This time he has donated $1000 to be used as a fund to provide prizes in debating contests. Dr. Kollen in speaking of the gift said that prospects were very bright for the institution. If the president has any more donations up his sleeve, the college will soon have a contest for each month in the year. Great interest is always shown in the different contests and they are a fine incentive to original research.

That that there were twenty-two thousand automobiles made in Michigan last year, with a list value of more than thirty million dollars, is interesting for several reasons. It contributes to Michigan pride to know that our state is at the very fore front of the automobile industry and that its leadership is expected to be increased rather than disputed. But another suggestion is contained in the surprising figures representing Michigan's automobile output, and that is that the demand at present prices will soon be caught up with and overtaken and that a natural reduction in automobile prices can then be expected. There are many practical purposes to which the whizz wagon can usefully be applied, but which present prices prevent. Michigan's energy and enterprise in this instance as in many others will contribute largely to the general good in several directions.

CORRESPONDENCE

Saugatuck.

While the work on Saugatuck harbor is not yet completed which fact has been a drawback to traffic for some time the fact that it could be used at all has some increased the business of 1906 over the business of 1905. The figures just made public are as follows:—

	Tonnage	Freight
Clearances of boats in tons
1905	420	28,494
1906	988	154,628

The superstructure is now being put in as fast as possible by a large crew of men and the 2300 feet which will cost $56,200 will soon be completed, Robert Love of Muskegon has charge of the work.

Postmaster Wade has been using his best efforts to establish Sunday mail here for the remainder of the summer as we have had that service the past two seasons. He made a special trip to Grand Rapids to see the Chief Clerk on the subject but the authorities at Washington are slow to respond.

Some of the people are still complaining that the resorters are not coming as fast as they should. Of course it is impossible to tell how many there are but the fact that the post office receipts average $2 per day more so far this month than for the same time last year is a pretty good argument to show that there are more people here now than at this time last year.

J. N. Clark of Glenn, a graduate of the Law Department of the U. of M. was in town last week investigating the possibilities of establishing a law business here. He is a bright young man and naturally met with much encouragement from our business men, all of whom would like to see him start a practice here and are willing to give their support if he comes here.

Hamilton.

A. J. Klompaens took a trip north last week taking orders for flour.

Maude Veache went to Holland and purchased a six-octave organ.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brinkman of Holland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klompaens last week.

The latter part of the week Mrs. Anna Vander Meulen of Grand Haven spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klompaens.

Mr. and Herman Brower of Allegan were here Monday and Tuesday of last week looking after their interests in their cherry orchard.

Clarence Peterham and wife have moved their household effects to Douglas where they will remain indefinitely, and Henry Windemulder and family have moved into the former's rented house owned by John Van Heulen, near the railroad track.

The recent rains have retarded progress on the new schoolhouse in this village but we are told by the contractors that the building will be ready for occupancy the last of August.

There seems to be some dissatisfaction on the part of the road commissioner and members of the township board in regard to the cement work on the Rabbit river bridge in this place. The contractor has not received his pay for the work, the board claiming the job was not done satisfactorily.

Mrs. Bowman who has been seriously sick for some time is rapidly failing.

It is reported that Cornelius Ackershoek of this place has been married to Mrs. Blank of Diamond Springs, but the old gentleman denies the report.

Hamilton will have a band.

Leonard VanHoven of Zeeland has accepted the position of book keeper at the local H. J. Heinz salting station this season. Last season he held a similar position at Grant, Mich.

New Holland.

Miss Susan Stegenga, who has taught school in the Leveense district, has been engaged for the coming year.

Huibert Peilgrim is remodeling his residence.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Strabbing were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Vanden Berg the first of last week.

Has Much Public Business.

Zeeland.

Mr. S. Brouwer of this city was in Martin last week to look after the new creamery and cheese factory which he is erecting there. Although ground for the new factory has not yet been broken, building operations will be begun the coming week. The new factory will be all brick, furnished by the Zeeland Brick Co., and 125,000 will be used in the construction of the plant.

Elenbaas, Ver Hey & Oosting were the successful bidders for the new school building last week. They are to furnish all the material and do all the work—except paint and painting—for the sum of $10,560. Wichers & Baareman's bid was next, being only $350 higher. Work is already in progress and the building is to be rushed to completion. The rooms upstairs are to be completed by October 1 and the entire job to be finished by October 15, under a penalty of $10 per day for every day thereafter necessary to complete the work should it take longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. D. Schilleman have returned from a visit to Kalamazoo. It is twenty-three years ago since Mrs. Schilleman last visited Kalamazoo.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Lahuis, Friday, July 19. The occasion was in honor of their 58th wedding anniversary.

Olive

A proposition being on foot to build a drain from the Pere Marquette railway to connect with the Harlem drain, some property owners in Olive township have entered a protest. They are Jacob and Fred Baker and H. W. Harrington. They claim that if the drain were built it would flood the best land in Olive township, since the drains there are inadequate to carry off the water. A committee was appointed by the Probate court to investigate. This committee with Attorney C. H. McBride and Prosecuting Attorney Coburn made a tour of investigation and found that a large canal was needed in Olive to redrain the best land there. This would be a permanent cure for all annoyances of floods.

Lora Risto has bought of John Weersing two lots, corner of Twenty-sixth and River streets, on which she intends to build a fine residence next summer.

Time Is The Test

The Testimony of Holland People Stands The Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. "A new broom sweeps clean", but will it wear well is what interests most. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Holland people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publically endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

Mrs. F. Brieve, living at 60 West First street, Holland, Mich., says: "My husband suffered from kidney trouble, had backache and soreness and stiffness of the limbs so severe at times that he could hardly lift anything. The secretions from the kidneys were very much disordered and he was restless and unable to sleep at night and suffered from frequent headaches and dizzy spells. He saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, used them carefully as directed and was soon cured." (From statement given April 26, 1906.)

OPERATORS' STRIKE ENDS

MEN ACCEPT COMPROMISE OFFERED BY THE COMPANIES.

Managers Promise No Advance But Will Receive Committee of Arbitration to Discuss Complaints.

Oakland, Cal., July 20.—At a meeting held in Oakland Friday the telegraphers' union voted unanimously to accept the terms of settlement proposed by the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies.

According to the terms of compromise, the telegraphers will return to work and then both telegraph companies will receive a committee of arbitration to discuss and settle matters affecting the telegraphers.

San Francisco, July 20.—Superintendent Storer, of the Postal Telegraph company, and Manager O'Brien, of the Western Union, declared Friday that their companies had made no agreement with the operators in regard to an increase in wages. The men will be taken back on precisely the same terms that applied when the strike was called.

WILLIAM JANUARY SET FREE.

Missouri Man Like Jean Valjean Released from Kansas Prison.

Fort Leavenworth, Kan., July 20.—William January, alias Charles W. Anderson, for whose pardon a petition containing the signatures of 50,000 persons was presented to President Roosevelt three months ago, was released from the federal prison here Friday. Anderson returned to Kansas City, Mo., where he will engage in business. The case of January resembles that of Victor Hugo's hero, Jean Valjean.

Anderson was convicted 11 years ago of robbing an Oklahoma post office and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. He escaped two years later and went to Kansas City, assuming the name of Anderson, married and prospered. In April this year an ex-convict who had known January in the penitentiary notified the warden of the man's whereabouts, and he was arrested and taken back to Leavenworth.

OBJECTS TO DOG IN CHURCH.

President's Summer Pastor Stops Sermon Till Pet Is Ejected.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 22.—Dr. Washburn, of St. John's Episcopal church, who is President Roosevelt's summer pastor, made it plain Sunday that he proposed to take no part in any nature-faking competition. When he saw that the main point in his sermon was likely to be misconstrued by his congregation because of the interest displayed in the presence of a friendly little dog, he stopped short. He would repeat what he had said after the dog had been ejected, he announced, but first he wished to insist that no members of his flock should hereafter bring their pet dogs to the church. President Roosevelt and his family attended the service.

MIRACLE IN THE VATICAN.

Apparition of Blessed Virgin Solves Pope's Hesitation About Decree.

Rome, July 20.—A member of the pope's household in the course of an interview published Friday night says that Pope Pius hesitated somewhat before he took the grave step of ordering the publication of the syllabus with regard to the so-called modernism in the faith, but that all his doubts were removed by a miraculous apparition of the Blessed Virgin, which extended its hand in a gesture of benediction and encouragement over his head as if in answer to his prayer for heavenly guidance; and that the pontiff thereupon rose from his knees and signed the decree.

WANAMAKER'S STABLES BURN.

Another Costly Fire on the Philadelphia's Country Estate.

Philadelphia, July 22.—The stables on John Wanamaker's estate, Lyndenhurst, near Jenkintown, a suburb, were destroyed by fire Sunday, entailing a loss estimated at $100,000. Mr. Wanamaker's country home was destroyed by fire in February last, causing a loss of nearly $2,000,000. At the time of this fire valuable paintings, bronzes, statues and bric-a-brac were stored in the stables. The paintings had since been removed, but many articles remained.

One Dead in Burning Hotel.

Eureka, Cal., July 20.—The depot and hotel at Slason were burned to the ground at an early hour this morning as the result of the explosion of a lamp. Miss Laura Faxey, a school teacher, who had just arrived there from New York, was burned to death. The water supply was defective and no effort could be made to control the flames.

Raisuli Holds Captive.

Tangier, Morocco, July 20.—Reports brought by courier that Calid Sir Harry MacLean had escaped from the hands of the bandit Raisuli appear to be untrue. The latest letter received from the calid is dated July 13. It says, among other things, that a deep ditch has been dug around his tent to prevent his escape.

McPherson Succeeds Swift.

Kansas City, Mo., July 20.—Thos. B. McPherson, of Omaha, was elected Friday president of the National Live-stock Exchange association to succeed James C. Swift, of Kansas City.

MANY SCORE LIVES ARE LOST AT SEA

STEAMER COLUMBIA RAN AND SUNK BY SCHOONER SAN PEDRO.

Terrible Collision in Shelter Cove, California—Doomed Vessel Sinks Almost Instantly—Names of Those Who Are Drowned or Missing.

Eureka, Cal., July 23.—Hourly the death list of the marine horror of the Mendocino county coast shrinks. The best advice is that 177 of the 248 souls on board the steamer Columbia escaped death when that vessel went down to the bottom near Shelter Cove between midnight and one o'clock of Sunday morning.

One hundred and seven of the Columbia's passengers and 37 of her crew have been brought to this port by the steamer George W. Elder, which towed the colliding schooner San Pedro from the scene of the disaster to Eureka. A late message from Shelter Cove says that three more lifeboats have been picked up, one of them containing 18 persons, another 15 and the third not reported.

Citizens Care for Survivors.

The survivors who were brought to this port are being cared for at hotels and in private houses. The citizens of Eureka, moved to unanimous action by pity and the distress of the victims, have supplied sufficient quantities of clothing and all necessary medical attention.

A committee of citizens under the leadership of Mayor Rickles has charged itself with the duties of the hour, and is performing them with energy and all possible speed.

Among the survivors rescued and carried north to this port by the George W. Elder, are men and women from a score of states, not a few from the Atlantic seaboard and the middle west. Among these are a number of school teachers who were varying with a sea voyage their home trip from the annual convention of the National Educational association at Los Angeles.

Drowned or Missing. The following is the list of drowned or unaccounted for:

Franklin Ault, Miss Anna Akenson, Mrs. R. Anderson, W. J. Bachman, E. Butler and wife, Miss Anna Bales, Miss Gertrude Butler, Mrs. J. Benson, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Best, Mrs. Jane Best, Miss A. Bernal, Miss Clara Carpenter, Miss Ruby Cooper, J. W. Carpenter, Chew Mook, Chinaman, Miss Lena Cooper, Mrs. A. S. Corbin, Mrs. R. B. Cannon, Marlon Chasby, Miss A. B. Cornell, L. Chasby and wife, Steven Chasby, J. C. Burham, L. L. Drinn, Jr., Mrs. L. L. Drake, F. S. Drake, Mrs. E. Galdala, W. Graham, Mrs. A. Gray, Mrs. Blanche Gordon, Frank Glum, Mrs. A. Happ, L. E. Hill, C. E. Harrington, Miss K. Hayden, Mrs. W. E. Ingalls, E. B. Keever, Miss Grace F. Keller, Miss Elsie Keller, Mrs. G. A. Keller, Miss Alma Keller, E. G. Leggett, Miss Florence Lewis, Ray Lewis, O. S. Lewis and wife, Lewis Mahus and wife, C. E. Mehl, Miss R. Munser, L. Mero, Miss Julia Matek, John Miller, C. W. Merrill, M. Mayo, John D. McFarlyn, Miss Margaret McKearney, Miss Louise D. Nake, Miss Nellie A. Nake, Miss Mary Parsons, E. E. Paul and wife, J. Premus, Sarah A. Roberts, P. Robertson, M. J. Ratemann, Mrs. Wm. Soule, G. A. Smith, Sarah Schull, Miss Cora Schull, J. E. Springer, Miss Elsie May Stone, Leo T. Sparks, Miss Frances Schroeder, Mrs. E. Silva, A. S. Pieler, E. Silva, W. C. Todd, Miss A. S. Todd, B. Vnata, E. P. Winters, G. F. Wilson, Mrs. A. Waller, Miss H. Wright, Roland Winters, C. W. Winslow and wife, Wall Waller, Miss Edna Wallace, Miss B. Wallace, Miss W. W. White, E. A. Wallis, J. K. Young.

In connection with the foregoing list it should be borne in mind that it will be measurably reduced by the 33 names of the survivors spoken of as coming ashore in lifeboats at Shelter Cove Monday.

No Panic; Women Brave.

Eight minutes after the San Pedro struck the Columbia the latter vessel had filled with water and sank. The night saloon watchman notified all the passengers to go to the upper deck. Without clothing they climbed out of their berths and rushed out. It was only two or three minutes before the decks were awash. Six boats and three lifeboats were cut loose and as many passengers as possible were crowded into them. There were scarcely any evidence of a panic, the women acting with heroism.

The crew of the San Pedro immediately lowered a boat and picked up a large number of survivors. Capt. Doran and First Officer Whitney were on the deck when the Columbia sank, the captain's last words being: "God bless you."

Blame Columbia's Officers.

O. Swanson, a sailor of the San Pedro, was at the wheel Saturday night when the fatal collision occurred. In his report to Sailors' Agent John Erickson, the blame is laid upon the shoulders of the Columbia's officers. Other members of the crew of the San Pedro substantiate the story of Swanson.

More Warships for Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—According to the Bourge Gazette the Russian minister of marine has ordered the Baltic yards to prepare for the prompt construction of several 2,000-ton battleships.

Appalling Number of Calamities.

On the first page of one of the large dailies last Monday night were headlines telling of several calamities all happening within the space of a few hours such as the Pere Marquette wreck at Salem which cost 32 lives, the Pere Marquette wreck at Sabewaing which snuffed out two lives, the collision of the steamer Columbia and the steamer San Pedro off the Mendocino coast, which claimed 100 lives, the breaking of a bridge in Loraine, Ohio, costing several lives, and two or three railway accidents costing a life each. Very little space was left on the front page of that paper for chronicling news other than catastrophes of this nature.

Some of these calamities may have been unavoidable. All of them, possibly, could have been avoided. Obviously, the majority of them could have been avoided. Obviously human lack of sense of responsibility, lack of ordinary care, and a preponderance of criminal negligence were responsible for the wholesale slaughter.

A contemplation of those conditions is discouraging. They are so eloquent of the utter unfitness for the responsibilities of life of some individuals.

Where such individuals are responsible for disaster, swift and drastic punishment should be visited upon them. Where corporations are liable the same course should be pursued relentlessly.

Out of chastisement might come lessons which would awaken others to a sense of the fitness of things where human life is concerned. In the meantime all that a patient public can hope for is an improvement of conditions. While it hopes the sacrifice goes on.

South Haven, Resorts, And Factories.

At South Haven a short time ago a special election was held to determine whether or not the city should raise money to expend for the purpose of encouraging manufacturing industries to come to that city. The knockers were in the majority and the question was lost. Strange to say the main argument advanced against the raising of the fund was that the obtaining of manufacturing plants would detract from the place as a summer resort and hurt the resort trade. South Haven is clearly in error. The resort season lasts but a couple of months while most factories last the entire year. Then it is a debatable question whether a good live city hurts resort trade. But even if it does the resort trade is not a circumstance to the good that accrues through a live progressive city.

Holland has its resorts and they yield the palm to none. It has also its industries, of a more diversified character and in a greater degree of prosperity and of a larger number than any city of its population in Michigan and the one does not conflict with the other. Both of these contributors to Holland's progress should always be encouraged the one not yielding in importance to the other so long as they do not conflict.

South Haven can here find an object lesson. Let a few of its most enterprising citizens like Mayor Abell, Alderman John Noud and D. Reid be sent here on an investigating tour and then call another special election. Keep on calling them until the most persistent foe of advancement sees the light.

A Change in Sentiment.

When Fred M. Warner first ran for governor of Michigan he was subjected to the most systematic and fiercest abuse that has been the lot of a Michigan governor to withstand. He was branded as the enemy of the people's interests and was hailed as the purchased friend of corporate interests. Defeat came nearly being his lot; but thanks to the innate sense of justice and fairness existing in the majority of the people he was given a trial. A taintas to his unfitness lingered round him during his second contest for political supremacy but the anvil chorus did not assume the proportions of the preceding campaign and he was elected handsomely.

He is now serving his second term and so plainly have his acts demonstrated that he stands for fairness, right and justice to all corporations and people, that sentiment is rapidly developing that he be given a third term.

Note the change. Misrepresentation of his attitude and views created the mistaken impression that he was a weak candidate for a first term. Now against his inclinations he is sought for a third term.

Fight for Con-Con on August 5.

Aug. 5, is the date set by the Republican county committee for the Ottawa county constitutional convention. The convention will be called to order at 2 o'clock and eleven delegates will be elected to attend the District convention to be held Aug. 13 to select the three men who will be the candidates of the Republicans of the Ottawa-Muskegon senatorial district.

Muskegon will claim the right to two of the candidates and William E. Osmun, an attorney at Montague has been agreed upon as the man who will represent that part of the county not included in the city of Muskegon. There will be a fight for the honor in the city, several of Muskegon's well known lawyers being groomed for the fray.

In Ottawa county Colon C. Lillie of Coopersville, state deputy dairy and food commissioner, is conducting an active campaign, as is also Robert Alward, ex-representative from the second district.

Attorney Arthur Van Duren of Holland and Wm. Savage of Spring Lake have been prominently mentioned for the place.

Prof. Nykerk Returns from England.

Prof J. B. Nykerk has returned home after a year's absence abroad. Mr. Nykerk had a years leave of absence, and next September he will again take charge of the chair of English and Oratory at Hope college. He spent the year at Oxford University and in the letters to his friends here he often expressed his interest in his work at the English university. However there is no place like home and Mr. Nykerk is glad to be back among his former friends and his friends were equally glad to welcome him on his return.

Prof Nykerk is enthusiastic about foreign travel. It is a splendid thing, he thinks for a young man especially a young college graduate, to see as much of the world as possible. It broadens a man's sympathies. It is well for an American to recognize that there are others besides himself who are of any importance in the world.

The trouble with the average American going abroad is that he is prejudiced against the country he goes to visit. The traveler should be entirely unprejudiced in order to get the greatest amount of pleasure and profit from his stay abroad.

Prof. Nykerk was favorably impressed by the English newspapers. They are more classic, he says, and are written in better English than the average American news paper, and we might learn a lesson in this respect as in some other respects from our English cousin.

The American in England is impressed by the narrowness of the streets in the old cities. In Oxford the streets are extremely narrow. Eighth street in Holland would be three streets rolled into one in that classic old town.

Prof. Nykerk visited many of the cathedrals in England and derived much pleasure from the music of their choirs. They are composed entirely of male voices, since the English seldom develop musical voices.

Woman's Confession in Shimmel Case Contradictory.

Regarding the Shimmel case the Grand Haven Tribune says:

Despite the fact that he is now accused of two murders and that his former wife accuses him of one of them the officers will have to get more than they have yet divulged to convict "Bill" Shimmel of either the Golden or Reynolds murder. The Reynolds woman, or Mrs. Washburn, her present name; is simply a huge romancer and as she spins her yarns in the Kent county jail, the reporters grasp eagerly all what she has to say and fill their papers with her tales. But her tales are becoming so wild and so unreasonable that it is certain what she has to say would impress no juror.

Mrs. Washburn now claims that Shimmel was accompanied by an other man, whose name is withheld, on the night of the alleged crime. She also now claims that a woman was mixed up in the affair. The woman, she says, came to her home next day and threatened to kill her should she divulge the happenings of the night before. That chloroform was thrown into her face on the night of the supposed tragedy is now the contention of Mrs. Washburn. She claims that after Reynolds had been murdered that she was dragged out to the barn by the murderer and his accomplice and was there foully used.

She says that after the murder she was threatened with death if she did not marry Shimmel and for that reason she secured a divorce from Reynolds in Muskegon in 1901 on the ground of desertion.

A story that may knock the whole lot of Mrs. Washburn's revelations into a cocked hat has just come to light. It is to the effect that one Henry Myers, formerly postmaster at Sparta, sheltered Reynolds on the night of the alleged murder and gave him a pair of overalls and a pair of boots. Reynolds, is said, left Sparta the next morning wearing the articles given to him by Myers and was seen by at least one person.

Mrs. Washburn now tells a tale that if true would connect Shimmel with the Golden murder. She claims to have seen Shimmel after that happening and to have gone with him picking flowers. She says she told him she intended to have him arrested and claims that he then threatened her with a large knife with which he was digging roots. She says that he then admitted having gone to Dennison and claims that he told her the name of a woman who, he said, had driven a rig in which he had gone to Dennison.

Mrs. Washburn has a brother, Bert Fuller, two years older than herself, who lives near Slocum. Fuller says that he does not believe that Reynolds is dead. He also says that he has known Shimmel for years and that he cannot say a word against him. He declares that he met Shimmel the day after the Golden murder and that Shimmel told him he had been to Nunica the day before.

Mrs. Washburn, alias Mrs. Shimmel, has been a much married woman. She says that her first wedding was to Henry Owen in Dobbs county, Wisconsin, in 1869. She left him in 1872 because he whipped two boys and secured a divorce from him. Then she was single until 1878 when she married John McRavy at Hartford, Mich. He died at the poorhouse in Hartford two years later. The woman's next matrimonial venture was her marriage to Wilson Judd at Slocum in September 1880. He was killed at Harrietta, Mich., in 1898. In the spring of 1898 she married Palmer Hill at Milwaukee. This wedding was considered void as Hill was a bigamist. Her fifth wedding was to Ira Reynolds in Muskegon in the fall of 1898. Reynolds disappeared from Sparta in the spring of 1899 and the woman accuses William Shimmel of killing him. William Shimmel, "poor old Bill," as he calls himself was the sixth victim. They were married in Muskegon in September 1905. The woman's last marriage was to Williams Washburn at Vicksburg in the spring of this year.

Mrs. Washburn says that she has attained the age of 59 years and that she was born in Montreal. Her narratives are not well connected. First she will talk about her early husbands and then about Bill Shimmel. Nevertheless it is not believed that she is insane and her brother says that Shimmel's story to the effect that she has been in and asylum is untrue.

Another Ottawa County Tragedy. Four Dead.

Undoubtedly a raving maniac, Henry Scutcheon Sunday morning killed his wife Polly, his son William and his wife's uncle, George Anning. Scutcheon later committed suicide after having been shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor whom he attacked. The shooting by McClellan was in self defense.

The scene of the wholesale butchery was one mile and a quarter south of Malones junction, a point midway between Nunica and Coopersville on the Grand Rapids, Grand Haven and Muskegon interurban.

An ax and an inch bar a foot long were the weapons used by Scutcheon. For some time the neighbors had noticed that Scutcheon was not in his right mind. He had been in debt and it is thought poverty made him desperate and he brooded over it. For two or three years he has been in that state and last December he threatened to murder his family consisting of himself, his wife, son and the old man. All of the family rose early Sunday.

In what order the victims met their fate is not known, only that the fifteen year-old son was undoubtedly the first victim. The first intimation that the family of Henry McClellan, residing directly across from the humble Scutcheon home, had was when Mrs. Scutcheon broke from her home with every appearance of having just engaged in a terrific struggle and she was screaming at the top of her voice: "He is killing my boy!"

That gives the impression that the son fell as the first victim. Mrs. Scutcheon got no farther than the middle of the road when the murderer with a huge iron bar clasped in his right hand, overtook her, hit her once in the back of the head with the rod and as she dropped in the road Scutcheon walked back to the scene of the first crime.

It is thought that the murderer with his crazed mind now terribly insane, went back to his house and then dispatched the old uncle. The body of Anning was found about eighty feet from the Scutcheon house. He, too, fell a victim to the ax. He had been struck in the back of the skull like the wife had met her death.

Anning was a cripple and used crutches. He had hobbled as far in the Scutcheon backyard as possible, but the murderer overtook him. The crutches were found lying ten feet nearer the house than where the old man dropped dead.

That Scutcheon was somewhat alive to the enormity of his crime is shown by the fact that after he killed his wife he slashed his wrists with a knife, cutting two gashes in his right arm at the wrist and one in the left arm near the artery. He also took a big dose of poison. That did not end his life.

While the body of Mrs. Scutcheon lay in a pool of blood in one room, the body of the son, lying in the lad's bedroom, and the old man dead in back yard, Scutcheon's victims were all gone for a minute, but soon Henry McClellan, who had gone down the road to the Zimmerman home for assistance, appeared. Both men were armed with shotguns.

Scutcheon had another murder in his mind. He also bore McClellan a grudge because his son whipped him two years ago. So when he sighted the two men he rushed from the house, still clinging to the ax, and made for the McClellan front yard, where the two men were.

McClellan said, "You step in this yard and I'll shoot you."

Scutcheon answered, "You don't dare to shoot," and he had taken no more than three steps when McClellan let go with both barrels of his shotgun. The shot didn't pierce Scutcheon's breast. Just before leaving the house to meet the McClellan party Scutcheon had slashed his throat with a knife. He dropped in his tracks.

"It is my belief that he died from arsenical poisoning," said Dr. J. S. Walling of Coopersville, who made an examination of the remains. "His writhing about on the ground would indicate that his agonies were caused by poison and the wounds in the throat did not reach an artery or vein, otherwise he would not have lived two minutes."

Deputy Sheriff Brown of Nunica, Sheriff Woodbury, Prosecutor Coburn and Coroner Walkeley of Grand Haven appeared and took charge of the remains and impounded a jury. Eight witnesses were sworn. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that all the victims came to their deaths at the hands of Henry Scutcheon and that his death was due to self inflicted wounds. Henry McClellan, the neighboring farmer who shot Scutcheon, was completely exonerated.

Twelve of her lady friends had gathered to wish her Godspeed. The Rev. Father Acherman and Rev. Father Otto of Grand Rapids were also among the guests. After dainty refreshments had been served the guest of honor was presented by her friends with two elegant pieces of handpainted china as tokens of friendship and remembrance.

Talk about your breakfast foods, A thousand you can see; I would not have them as a gift, But would have Rocky Mountain Tea. Haan Bros.

Was A Big Business Holiday.

Yesterday's big business holiday at Jenison Park was attended by a large crowd and was one of the most successful outings in the history of the resort. Every business place in the city was closed at noon and from that hour until evening the citizens of Holland turned parkward.

The attraction features and games and sports occupied the time until all were wearied by the days fun.

The fireworks in the evening were good and the balloon ascension and parachute drop was the best ever seen in this part of the state.

There were no serious accidents and the crowd was orderly.

Zeeland carried off the honors on the baseball diamond by duplicating the trick performed last year and defeated Holland in a sensational five-inning game by the score of 2 to 1. Slabbekoorn and Hiestje formed the battery for Zeeland and Kelley and Schouten for Holland. The Zeelandites clinched the game in the first inning where two scores were registered, which the locals were unable to overcome.

The second game between the rival teams, the Holland Interurbans and the Independents, was captured by the former team by the score of 2 to 1. Ossignac and Vandenberg and Woldring and TeRoller formed the batteries. The contest was one of the most brilliant witnessed this season, and owing to the evenly matched condition the fans will endeavor to raise a purse for the winner in a game on the Nineteenth street grounds in this city.

The chief interest centered in the launch races. In the business men's race Will Arendhorst's boat, the Mercury, captured the silver trophy by making the four mile score in 23 minutes. The other boats came in as follows: Saladin, Cooper & Devries, 23:15; Ada, T. VanLandegend, 23:45; Mildred, Jacob Lokker, 24:05; Curlew, A. Vischer, 25:05; Bob, Dick Homkes, 25:05; O. K., Otto Kan, 25:35; Scout, Schilleman & Fairbanks, 27:35.

The second launch race, limited to launches owned by resorters, resulted in a tie between the Vesta, owned by Ward S. Perry, and the Jungle Babe, owned by G. D. Green, and the race will be pulled off this evening at 7 o'clock. A handsome cup is offered as a trophy and the race will likely be witnessed by a large crowd. The order in which the boats finished, according to the handicapper, is as follows: Jungle Babe, G. D. Green; Hazel J., E. Wilder; Charlotta, M. A. Hirsch; Waterloo, E. F. Crawley; Red Wing, W. J. Hallow; Marie Louise, George Stahl; Anna Grace, Neuman. The best time made was 21 3-4 minutes.

A new novel feature of the Venetian evening celebration at the resorts Thursday evening, August 1, will be a volcanic display. From the top of Baldhead an eruption resembling Vesuvius will illuminate the heavens lighting up the bay and the shores of the lake, and forming a brilliant background for the display on the bay.

Notes of Sport.

Thomas Willisie, who has been manager of the Holland ball team, has resigned and left Saturday evening for Charlevoix where he will play ball for the season. Dave O'Connor has been appointed manager for the Hollands.

A dark cloud hovered over Zeeland last Saturday and when it disappeared it was disclosed that the Chicago Union Giants, the strong colored team of Chicago, had defeated the valiant Zeelandites by a score of 3 to 1.

Woldring's home run, Shaw's pitching and Knutson's phenomenal one-handed catch were the features of a gingery game at Douglas last Saturday afternoon in which the Independents trounced Douglas by the score of 9 to 7.

In Saturday afternoon's regatta the Macatawa captured the event, covering the course in 1:05.53 thus taking the lead over the Intruder with which she was formerly tied for first place. The Raven under Skipper Conger was second with a lapse of time of 1:07.45 and the Intruder, Skipper Kraus, was third in 1:11.24. Commodore Drake gave the signal for the start at 2:40. The Macatawa, captained by Skipper Seates soon took a lead which she held to the end of the course altho closely followed by the Raven. The standing of the five boats in class A is as follows: Macatawa, first; Intruder second; Raven, third; Bay Hom-Ir, fourth and Problem fifth. The remaining events in this class will be sailed Aug. 1 and 2, 10 and 24. During the yacht races this season the magnificent sailing qualities of Capt. Rol Astra of Holland boys, including John Borgman, and his fine crew of Holland stands out prominently. They can give the others cards and spades and then have something to spare in seamanship. If anyone can land the Intruder winner they are the goods.

PLEADS WITH JURY TO SAVE HAYWOOD

ATTORNEY RICHARDSON SPEAKS
ALL MONDAY MORNING AND EVENING.

Is Frank About Adams—Says Neither
Side Dared Put Him on Stand—
Preliminary Hearing of the McGee
Perjury Case.

Boise, Idaho, July 23.—For four hours and a half Monday E. F. Richardson pleaded with the jury for the life of William D. Haywood. Under order of the court the hours for the day's sessions were changed and in place of sitting in the afternoon, court met at six o'clock in the evening. Judge Wood was informed by the jury that the extreme heat of the courtroom was too trying on some of the jurors and complied with the request for a late evening session.

The preliminary hearing of the case of Dr. I. T. McGee, one of the witnesses for the defense, charged with perjury, came up Monday afternoon and will be continued Tuesday. Orchard was on the stand for over an hour and was given a severe grilling in the cross-examination by McGee's counsel. The prisoner witness, however, maintained his characteristic calm throughout.

Goes Into Steunenberg Death.
Mr. Richardson plunged directly into the death of Gov. Steunenberg in his opening sentence. He declared it was Gov. Steunenberg's fortune during his administration to stand in the forefront of a labor war in the Coeur d'Alenes.

Perhaps, he said, the situation demanded all that the governor did. Perhaps it did not.

"I do not know," declared Mr. Richardson, "and I shall not attempt to say. But at any rate, for the first time in the administration of American justice, the bull pen was called into being. Gov. Steunenberg's course was condemned on the one side and praised on the other, as the members of the two hostile camps view the matter."

Mr. Richardson reviewed the events following the death of Steunenberg, saying Harry Orchard was caught almost red-handed in the act.

"A Pinkerton detective came to Idaho and soon had a confession from a man who, to save his own worthless neck, was ready to place the blame upon others," said Mr. Richardson.

At the evening session Mr. Richardson said he would do all he could to abridge his remarks on account of the intense heat. The contention of the defense, he declared, is that no matter whether Orchard committed the crimes to which he confessed or not, no connection has been shown between Orchard and the defendant at the bar. Concluding his discussion of the Vindicator mine explosion, he declared again that the preponderance of testimony showed it to be an accident.

Orchard's testimony as to receiving money from the Western Federation of Miners for crime was not corroborated by a single witness, he asserted, and should not be considered. As to the coming of militia to Cripple Creek, Attorney Richardson said they came at the behest and in the service of the Mine Owners' association, whose members were assessed so much a month to buy the certificates of indebtedness issued by the state.

Frank About Steve Adams.
Richardson charged that the Independence depot explosion was the result of a plot by the mine owners to extirpate, root and branch, the Western Federation of Miners, which was trying to control wages and secure work for its members under proper conditions.

Answering Mr. Hawley's taunt in his opening address as to why the defense had not put Steve Adams on the stand, Richardson declared he wanted to be perfectly frank.

"It would have been a case of dog eat dog, and Hawley and Borah knew it. Under the same influences that worked on Orchard they secured a confession from Adams which he repudiated. They have the confessions and we have the repudiation. The whole truth, gentlemen, is that one was afraid to put him on the stand and the other didn't dare to."

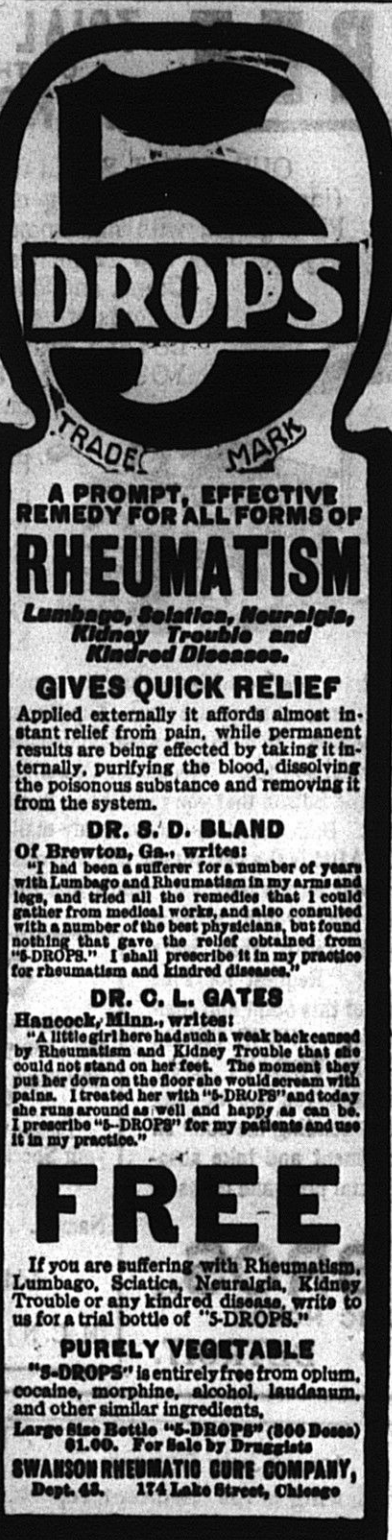

BRINGING BACK THE MAGILLS.

Clinton Sheriff Leaves San Diego
With Accused Couple.

San Diego, Cal., July 23.—Sheriff Campbell of Dewitt county, Illinois, left on the morning train Sunday for Clinton, accompanied by Fred Magill and the latter's wife, who go to face the charge of murdering Mrs. Pet Magill of Clinton.

It was learned Sunday that Miss Margaret Magill, daughter of the accused man, arrived in Clinton Sunday afternoon. Her departure from this city two or three days ago was kept a close secret.

Burned by Molten Metal.
Pittsburg, Pa., July 22.—Caught under a shower of molten metal at the Homestead Steel works Sunday five men were seriously burned, two perhaps fatally, while many others received minor injuries. The men were tapping a furnace when the big ladle containing tons of molten metal was accidentally tipped.

Long Live The King

Is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds its proven remedy. Guaranteed by Walsh Drug Co. Druggist. 50 c and $1.00. BRINGS SURVIVORS FROM SHIPWRECK

ONE PASSENGER IS ALSO ON THE VESSEL

Death List is Now Placed at Ninety-Eight—Explosion of Boilers Said to Have Saved the Lives of Many Persons.

San Francisco, July 24.—The Pacific Coast Steamship company's passenger steamer Pomona arrived in San Francisco from Eureka at 10:30 Tuesday morning, bringing from the latter place one of the surviving passengers of the wrecked steamer Columbia, and the 32 members of the Columbia's crew, who were saved out of her total complement of 59. The passenger is Miss A. Leidell, of this city.

Miss Leidell stated that she was asleep in her berth when the accident occurred. She ran out on the deck and leaped into the sea, as she thought, but fortunately she landed on one of the half-submerged rafts and was not badly hurt. She said a woman with a child in her arms followed but fell into the water and both were drowned. Just before the Columbia went down Miss Leidell said Capt. Doran tied down the whistle cord and throwing his hands up cried out: "Good-by, God bless you."

In response to questioning, Capt. Swanson said: "The Pomona left Eureka at two o'clock Monday afternoon with one passenger and 32 of the survivors of the crew of the Columbia who reached Eureka from Shelter Cove. I did not have an opportunity to learn their names. Purser Byrnes, of the lost ship, is remaining at Eureka by order of his company. He has sent many of the survivors north to Portland upon the steamer George W. Elder, which rescued 80 or 90 men and women and took them to Eureka, to which point she towed the water-logged San Pedro. Many of the survivors will remain at Eureka and are being cared for in hospitals. They are suffering from exposure, shock and grief. No one who belonged to me was on board the Columbia, but I had many friends and acquaintances among the men and officers of the crew."

Ninety-Seven Saved by the Elder.

It is known that of 188 passengers reported by the company as sailing on the Columbia, 97 were saved by the George W. Elder, which towed the San Pedro into Eureka.

There were 60 in the crew of the Columbia and of these 38 were on the Elder. Reports from Shelter Cove announce the arrival of one boat with 15 more passengers and crew, leaving the total death roll at 98.

So far only one boat has arrived at Shelter Cove, although four were reported there. It is said that before the steamer sank six of her boats had been launched together with three life rafts. These have yet to be heard from and it is expected that steamers passing up and down the coast will succeed in picking them up with their living freight.

Explosion Saves Many Lives.

That so many escapes is accredited, strange to say, to the fact that the explosion of the boilers when the steamer was sinking counteracted the tremendous suction and saved a lot of persons who were in the water from being drawn into the vortex and down with the wreckage. The back wave from the sinking steamer threw many swimming for their lives back from the point of danger and gave them a chance to escape. Not a few of the passengers on board the Columbia were teachers and their friends who had been attending the National Educational association in Los Angeles. Many of these have been rescued and were among the arrivals on board the George W. Elder.

On Sunday evening there was an affecting scene on board the Elder when the rescued passengers gathered in the social hall and divine services were held by Rev. Frank Talmage of Los Angeles, son of T. Dewitt Talmage.

Kneeling on the floor the passengers joined in offering thanks to the Almighty for their deliverance. It was a touching spectacle while women and men with bruised faces and limbs in strange clothes supplied by the passengers and crew of the Elder sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Rock of Ages."

Killed by Fall of Lumber.

Philadelphia, July 24.—By the toppling over of a big pile of lumber in the yard of Smedley Bros. company in this city Tuesday, Walter Kempa, an employe, was killed almost instantly, and Stanislaw Gowaski, another workman, received injuries which may prove fatal. The men were building up the pile of lumber when it gave way. Both were completely buried and when they were uncovered it was found that Kempa was dead.

Engineer and Fireman Burned. Minneapolis, Minn., July 24.—S. L. Serfoss, engineer, and A. H. Parker, fireman, were burned to death in their cab Tuesday as a result of a collision on the Minneapolis Western, a transfer road. A switching engine backed into their engine, wrecking it and pinning the men under the debris, which took fire.

GRINNING IN THE GRAIN!

THIRTY-ONE DEAD IN MICHIGAN WRECK

LITTLE CITY OF IONIA IS FULL OF MOURNING OF VICTIMS' FAMILIES.

Eight Injured May Die—Shocking Collision Between Excursion Train and Freight—Crew of the Latter Say They Forgot Their Orders.

Detroit, Mich., July 22.—The death list as a result of Saturday's collision near Salem between an excursion train and a freight train stands now at 31, but among the 100 injured in this city and Ionia, eight are reported to be in a serious condition and not out of danger.

There are 61 injured people at their homes in Ionia and 42 were brought to the hospitals in this city for treatment. Of the long list of suffering persons at Ionia but one, Mrs. H. Durling, whose husband and son were killed, is reported to be in a dangerous condition. Seven of the injured in the local hospitals are not yet out of danger. These are: Banner Huggins, Mrs. Catherine Selbach, John B. Anderson, Abraham Eddy, William Beals, Mrs. Nellie Dalsen and Mrs. Catherine Smith. All are residents of Ionia.

Ionia is in Mourning.

Sunday was a day of grief and mourning in the little city of Ionia, which is 130 miles west of Detroit. Mayor John N. Bible says he estimates that one in every 50 of the city's inhabitants was either killed or injured in the wreck. All of Saturday night members of a citizens' committee, which was appointed when the extent of the catastrophe was realized, were at work visiting the homes of the dead and injured and arranging for medical attention and assistance where it was necessary. All of the city's normal activities have practically been suspended and every one is devoting attention to the wreck victims.

How the Disaster Occurred.

The passenger train, of 11 cars, was bringing the Pere Marquette shapemongers of Ionia and their families to Detroit for their annual excursion. It was running at high speed down a grade when it met the freight train head on.

The locomotives were smashed and behind them six cars of the passenger train lay piled in a hopeless wreck. Four of the passenger coaches remained on the track undamaged and were used to convey the dead and injured to Ionia. One coach was undamaged, with only its forward truck off the rails. These were the rear five cars. The two coaches next ahead of these were telescoped. One of these was the smoker, where most of the victims were riding.

Freight Crew Blamed.

Responsibility is put squarely onto the crew of the freight train by officials of the road. One of them, who arrived at the scene of the wreck soon after the accident, took from the crew of the freight the orders under which it was running. They clearly showed the position of the passenger excursion train and that the freight had encroached on the other train's running time.

The special train was due at Salem at 9:10 a. m. and at Plymouth at 9:24 a. m. It passed Salem on time.

The time card of the special was telegraphed to the freight crew in the form of a train order, and this order, with the signatures of the freight train crew attached, was recovered by the officials.

The freight crew explained that they "forgot about the special."

Alleged Lyncher Acquitted.

Charlotte, N. C., July 20.—The jury of Union county superior court, in the case of John Jones, one of the 20 citizens of Anson county charged with lynching John V. Johnson, at Wadesboro, May 28, 1906, Friday returned a verdict of not guilty.

BUTCHERS THREE WITH AX

CRAZED FARMER SLAYS HIS SON, WIFE AND FATHER-IN-LAW.

Attempts Suicide and is Shot Dead by a Neighbor Whose Life He Threatened.

Nunica, Mich., July 22.—Henry Scutcheon, a farmer about 50 years old, who lived near this village, ran amuck Sunday with an ax, killing his invalid son, his wife and her foster father.

Scutcheon was later shot by Henry McClellan, a neighbor whom the crazed murderer also had attacked.

The dead:

Henry Scutcheon.

Polly Scutcheon, his wife.

Frank Scutcheon, his 18-year-old son.

George Anning, Mrs. Scutcheon's foster father.

The Scutcheon farmhouse had apparently always been a happy home, except for the cloud which the son's invalidism cast over the family.

Sunday, with no warning, so far as is known, Scutcheon suddenly and brutally attacked his son with an ax. He crushed the boy's head frightfully. When his wife interfered he turned on her and pursued the frightened, screaming woman from their house to the road, where he knocked her down with his weapon. He then rushed back to the house and murdered his foster father-in-law.

Next he tried to destroy himself. The maddened man gashed his throat and wrists with a razor and took some parais green. His wounds did not take immediate effect. Ax in hand, he returned to the road where he had felled his wife a few moments before. The first blow did not kill her and she had been carried into the house of Henry McClellan, near by. McClellan rushed to another neighbor's for help.

Slays Wife and is Shot.

When Scutcheon found that his wife was in the McClellan home alive he smashed a window with his ax, jumped through it and again attacked her. This time he crushed her skull. He then left the McClellan home and returned to his own house, but when Mr. McClellan returned from his search for help the crazed man came out and started toward him, saying: "I want you, too."

"I will shoot if you come across the road," replied McClellan, who had armed himself with a shotgun. Despite the warning, Scutcheon came across with murder in his glance, McClellan thereupon shot him dead.

MIDSHIPMAN CRUSE BURIED.

Washington, July 22.—With full military honors, Midshipman James F. Cruse, one of the victims of the explosion on the battleship Georgia last Monday, was buried at the Arlington national cemetery Sunday.

Maj. and Mrs. Thomas Cruse, of Omaha, Neb., the young officer's father and mother, and Lieut. Frederick T. Cruse, U. S. A., his brother, accompanied the body to Arlington. Among the many floral tributes was a handsome design sent from Oyster Bay by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry and prominent naval officers witnessed the ceremonies at the cemetery.

Injured in Trolley Accident.

Ann Arbor, Mich., July 22.—Four persons were injured, one of them severely, Sunday, when a construction car collided with a heavily loaded passenger car on the Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor & Jackson trolley line, two miles west of this city, at the bottom of a steep grade. Rev. John Ryerson, of Chelsea, grand chaplain of the Michigan lodge of Elks, was thrown into the motorman's vestibule by the collision and crushed under a broken door. His injuries may be serious.

UNVEIL SHAFT TO MORTON

WAR GOVERNOR OF INDIANA IS HONORED.

Veterans and National Guard Participate in Ceremonies—Hansy Delivers Address.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 24.—The unveiling of a monument to Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's war governor, Tuesday was the occasion of a large gathering of veterans of the civil war. Among those attending were Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks and Gen. R. B. Brown, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

The monument stands at the east entrance to the state house and was erected at a cost of $10,000. The unveiling was done by the hand of Oliver Perry Morton, of Hartford, Conn., a grandson of Gov. Morton.

Participating in the exercises were 3,000 civil war veterans and members of the Indiana national guard. The principal address at the monument was delivered by Gov. J. Frank Hanley, who said in part:

"Oliver P. Morton is dead. The powerful arm upon which the martyred Lincoln leaned; the mighty hand that kept a wavering state within the union's gates, whose unerring finger points the way to victory, led through strife and sacrifice, have long been limp and lifeless. A breath or touch of air would make them formless as the dust beneath our feet.

"The tongue whose logic, trenchant as a soldier's blade, dissolving sophistry and doubt, carried conviction, straight as a ray of light, to the minds of listening multitudes, is still dead. For three decades it has coiled no phrase and uttered no word, no syllable.

"The children of his mighty intellect live on. The concepts of his mind, the utterances of his tongue have not died. They were not buried in the grave with his mortal dust. They could no more be buried there than truth itself, of which they are a part, could be confined within the limits of the tomb. Winged with the breath of divinity, they are enduring and eternal. Thus it is with them and thus it is with him."

A monster camp fire was held at night at which vice president Fairbanks, Commander-in-Chief Brown, Adjutant J. W. Oneal and others spoke.

TWIN GIRL'S SLAVE—SHE IS 12.

Humorist Who Hobnobbed with King Captured by Child.

New York, July 24.—After hobnobbing with King Edward, being made the recipient of a degree by Oxford university, and having been dined and otherwise petted by notabilities of all sorts on John Bull's island, Mark Twain comes back the happy and devoted slave of a little American girl. The small maiden is Dorothy Quick, daughter of Mrs. E. G. Quick of Brooklyn. She and the shaggy-haired humorist and philosopher had never met before the latter boarded the liner Minnetonka at Tilbury docks, London, but once they did meet they became inseparable shipmates.

Miss Quick has hazel hair, blue eyes, a peaches-and-cream complexion and a merry laugh, and these prove irresistible to Mark Twain for nine days, which was the time the voyage lasted.

"How old are you, Mark?" she asked him one night as they stood arm in arm looking at the moonlit ocean.

"Well," drawled the funmaker, "the last time I was weighed I was 74. How old are you?"

"I'm 11, going on 12," she answered, proudly, "and I'm in the fourth reader."

"My goodness," replied her friend, "but you are a big, wise girl."

The two were photographed several times on deck, in each others embrace, and the humorist wore his white suit in honor of these occasions.

Train Has Narrow Escape.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., July 24.—A heavy passenger train from Chicago on the Wisconsin Central narrowly escaped being hurled into the river here Tuesday. A switch engine which was preceding the train by only a few minutes was derailed near a bridge and tore up 20 feet of rails. Four men on the switch engine jumped off in time to save themselves. Hearing the whistle of the passenger train, one of the switchmen ran back and succeeded in flagging the train in time to prevent a wreck.

Respite for "Lord" Barrington.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 24.—Gov. Folk Tuesday granted a respite of 30 days to "Lord" Frederick Seymour Barrington, under sentence to be hanged at Clayton, Mo., on July 25 for the murder of James P. McCann. Gov. Folk gave as his reason for granting the respite to Barrington that he desired to have time to fully investigate and consider the petition presented by State Supreme Judges Graves and Valliant for commutation of Barrington's death sentence.

Bell Signals for Naval Ships.

Washington, July 24.—Admiral Cowles, chief of the equipment bureau of the navy department, following the lead of the lighthouse service, Tuesday gave orders for the equipment of five battleships, ten colliers, six torpedo boat destroyers, the converted yacht Mayflower and the dispatch boat Dolphin with the system of submarine bell signals to assist in difficult navigation.

Holland Maccabees will be well represented at a grand rally in Allegan August 3. A special train will bring delegations from points between Muskegon and Allegan including Holland.

The Holland band is rapidly becoming famous. Its latest invitation to furnish music on one of the big days at the state fair held in Detroit from August 29 to Sept. 6, the request coming from Chas. A. Floyd, business manager of the state fair.

South Haven is pining for its lost love, the steamer Eastland, and it is reported that the strenuous efforts of the lovers will result in the bringing back of the boat from Lake Erie to again take the South Haven-Chicago route. The absence of the Eastland means the loss of thousands of dollars to the factoryless resort city.

Friends of A. B. Bosman, who with his father, Jan J. Bosman, and his brother, Dr. J. Bosman, of Kalamazoo, is touring in Europe, have received postal cards from Liverpool and short messages on each of them indicate that travelers are having a nice trip. However, there is a tone to them that suggests that to the mind of A. B. there is no place like Eighth street, Holland.

While in Benton Harbor on a short vacation trip this week, Ben A. Mulder of the News, negotiated for the appearance of the two flying rollers bands at the Holland Fair. If his plans are successful these bands will prove a great attraction as in their unique costumes they will certainly attract great attention. And then they can play some as Mr. Mulder can testify, as he attended one of their band concerts.

A night car on the Grand Haven & Muskegon railway, leaving Grand Haven at midnight, left the track and capsized at the corner of Third and Fulton streets. There were but two passengers, Guy Gough and Herbert Munson of Muskegon. Gough suffered severe scalp injuries and Munson's back was badly wrenched. Chamberlain, conductor, was bruised on the legs but Bruce Chalmers, motorman, was unhurt. A number of other railroad men were aboard the car, but none were injured. The motorman admits he was dozing.

Bob Graves, the Grand Haven colored young man, who is charged with the serious offence of attempting to assault Mrs. Alvira Raglan, a colored young woman employed in the family of D. A. Marks of St. Louis at Highland Park, had an examination before Justice Hoyt and at its conclusion was held to the August term of circuit court. Bail was again fixed at $1,000. Graves will undoubtedly remain in jail until the trial in circuit court. The examination was held behind closed doors. Testimony was rendered by the complaining witness, Mrs. Raglan, and by Frank Salisbury only. The woman testified about as she talked when she made the complaint against Graves some days ago. She stated that Graves attacked her in a lonely spot on Lake avenue near the cemetery at 10:30 last Saturday night and that she fought him off and that people coming along the walk heard her scream and that this frightened Graves from her. Mrs. Raglan was accompanied to the court by Mrs. Marks. The complaining witness appeared very serious and made a good impression. Graves offered no testimony in his own behalf. He admits having been with the woman on the night of the alleged attempted assault and admits making improper proposals to her but denies the physical assault. In court at the time of his arrest he is alleged to have stated that Mrs. Raglan was too stout for him and Deputy Sheriff Salisbury was called to testify to remark.

Theological student J. Beldt of this city conducted services in the Second Christian Reformed church at Zeeland last Sunday.

Sheriff Woodbury has gone to Wisconsin for the purpose of having an interview with George Owen, a son of the woman Mrs. Washburn, now in the county jail. Owen it is believed was in this vicinity at the time of the Golden murder. It is said that he saw Shimmel on the day of the murder of the Dennison postmaster.

After filing bond in the sum of $22,020.22 the appraised valuation of the hulk of the steamship Naomi, the Crosby Transportation Company were Monday given charge of the hulk which has been in the hands of the United States marshal as a result of the libel suits to recover salvage begun by the steamers Saxona and Kerr.

There are at present only six inmates in the county jail at Grand Haven. They are Wm. Shimmel, charged with the Golden murder; a woman charged with illegal cohabitation, she is from Canada but was arrested here a few weeks ago; John Jackman for drunkenness who received his sentence Monday. Jackman's son was killed five or six years ago by Bert Tibbetts at Georgetown, who is now serving a life sentence in the state prison; Chas. Dykema, charged with arson, a Holland man under short sentence for being drunk, and Frank Howell, a sign painter, who was attacked with delirium tremens on the streets of this city a week or so ago.

John Leach, through P. L. Fouch, his attorney, has petitioned the circuit court for a writ of mandamus to compel Sheriff Whitbeck to show cause why the relator should not be allowed more freedom at the county jail and be permitted to see his wife and others who call to see him. The hearing is set for today. Mr. Leach has been in jail since April 11 because he refused to pay a judgment of over $200 and costs a jury returned against him in the action brought for injuries sustained at his hands by George H. Smith during an assault. Up to July 2 he was allowed considerable liberty, and his wife was permitted to carry his meals to him and call twice a day; but Mr. Smith, who has to pay his board there, objected and since then he has been kept in solitary confinement. If Mr. Leach would pay his fine he would be released at once, but he prefers jail to parting with his cash in this case, asserting that he was not at fault.

First communion was administered to a large class of boys and girls at St. Francis Catholic church last Sunday morning by Rev. Father Eickelmann, of Byron Center, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Father Fenelon, of Chicago. The sermon to the class by Father Eickelmann was one of the best of its kind that has been heard in many a day and created a profound impression. In the afternoon the sacrament of confirmation was conferred upon a large class by Right Rev. Henry Joseph Richter, bishop of the diocese of Grand Rapids. The bishop questioned the members of the class very closely and found that they were unusually well instructed. Father Schrembs delivered a very good address to the class and the bishop spoke a few words of advice. Those who assisted in the ceremonies were Rev. Father Eickelmann, Father Kuene, of Salem, Father Gallagher of Grand Rapids and Father Fenelon.

The annual election of the Macatawa Park Cottagers association was held Monday night and the following officers were elected: President, B. P. Finley, Kansas City; First Vice President, Hugh Shirkie, Brazil, Ind.; Second Vice President, Mr. Hayes, Joliet, Ill.; Secretary, Arthur Van Duren, Holland; Treasurer, Gerrit J. Diekema, Holland. The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed that not a cent of indebtedness had been incurred for the improvements the past year and that the finances were in excellent condition. Plans for the future were discussed and the policy of progress and improvement will be continued. A six per cent dividend on the stock payable August 23, was declared. The officials were authorized to build or purchase a new ferry boat for next year. The association has only the Skidoo, which cannot care for the business during the resort season, and the Mary, of Waukazoo, which has been chartered to help out with the ferrying. The business needs another boat.

Martin Ver Hage, while watching the ball game at Jenison Park yesterday was struck in the face by a pitched ball and rendered unconscious for a couple of hours.

The new Berry steamboat company plying between Chicago and Muskegon has purchased the steamer Peerless and will soon be ready for strong competition with the Goodrich line.

Thomas Daugherty of Benton Harbor, assistant purser on the City of Benton Harbor was arrested and pleaded guilty of the charge of stealing about 150 season tickets and turning them over to the brokers to be sold, he to get the largest share of the proceeds. Daugherty's friends are greatly surprised as he stood high in the community being prominent in fraternal circles.

Venetian Evening Will be Scene Of Splendor.

There is nothing to it. The great Venetian evening celebration, which has now become a fixture as a Macatawa Bay celebration, has everything in the line of splendor faded to a fizzle. In the past it has distanced everything in the line of a scenic display, but this year's pageant will be the winner. No detail has been overlooked in preparing for the blaze of glory and from point to point encircling the whole bay the lights will shine forth in profusion.

The parade of the yachts and launches will take place shortly after eight o'clock and at a signal from historic old Baldhead, the mimic naval battle will take place.

Extra cars will be put on by the Interurban and no pains will be spared to give adequate service.

Busy Council Meeting.

At Monday night's meeting of the common council a resolution by Alderman Stephan was passed ordering Contractor Prange to make repairs within 10 days after the notice had been served on him, the repairs to cover such defects as the city engineer has pointed out in his report.

Two ordinances, by which it is intended to promote the public health, were passed. One of the ordinances vests more authority in the board of health, giving that body unlimited authority in providing protection against disease, and the other ordinance provides that scavengers shall secure a license before plying their occupation.

The ordinance also requires the board of health to meet once a month. The ordinance licensing scavengers calls for a bond of $1000.

The application of C. Stekette for scavengers' license was referred to the committee on license. T. Ten Houten's application for a sidewalk builders' license and the application of John Looman for a building movers' license were also referred to the license committee.

The council approved the action of the board of police and fire commissioner in increasing the salaries of the firemen.

Chief of Police Kamferbeek reported the collection of $34 in license fees from proprietors of street stands July 4. His report showed that Henry Kleyn and Benjamin De Vries had not yet paid the license and the collection of the same was referred to the city attorney.

The city inspector reported that the store building on Eighth street, owned by B. Riksen, was unsafe, a menace to the public and a fire trap. He recommended that it be torn down, and the report was accepted and the recommendation ordered carried out.

The committee in charge of street sprinkling was instructed to submit an estimate of the cost of the service in order that the supervisors could spread the tax.

Street sprinkling addition No 2 was enlarged by the addition of West Seventh street from Central avenue to River street.

The council ordered the payment to B. Riksen of the balance due on his street grading and graveling contract, upon the showing that the work had been satisfactorily completed.
